Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

INSPECTORS GENERAL OF PRISONS, IRELAND.

RETURN of the SALARIES, EMOLUMENTS and DUTIES of the INSPECTORS GENERAL of PRISONS in Ireland, and how far their Duties are connected with the Convict Department and Hulks.

NAMES.	SALARIES.	EMOLUMENTS.	DUTIES.	How far connected with the Convict Department and Hulks.
	£. s. d.
James Palmer - - -	553 16 11	There are no Allowances or Emolumets.	1st.—To inspect annually, and oftener, as required or necessary, every Gaol, House of Correction and Bridewell in the Kiogdom, and make a minute Report on each to Government and Parliament.	The Inspectors General of Prisons in Ireland have at present no connection with the Hulks or Depôts for Government Convicts, further than to inspect and report on their state. Doctor Trevor manages the whole interior Economy and Discipline of these Prisons, and conducts the Embarkation of Convicts for New South Wales, and corresponds directly with the Government on all these points, under Act 7 Geo. IV. c. 74.
B. B. Woodward - -	553 16 11	Each Grand Jury presents £. 20 annually to the Inspector-General, who inspects the Governm. nt Bridewell, &c. of the County, inteaded to cover the Expense of Travelling within the County, for Stationery, Clerks and Office. For all extra Expenses no other prov ston is made, except printed Forms.	2d.—To inspect every Lunatic Asylum, public and private, in Ireland, and see that no abuse exists, and to report on them in detail to Government aod Parliament.
N. B.—A deduction of £. 18 is made annually from this Salary at the Treasury.			3d.—To inspect the County Infirmaries of Ireland, if required by the Lord Lieutenant, under the Act 46 Geo. III. c. 95, clauses 7 and 8: this has not hitherto been required.
			4th.—To report on the Plans and Sites of all new Gaols, or other Prison Buildings, for the Lord Lieutenant's information.
			5th.—To inspect and report on the State of the Hulks and Convict Departments.
			6th.—To keep a Record of all Convicts for Transportation.
			7th.—To keep a Record of all Committals to the smaller Bridewells, and to regulate their Expenditure.
			8th.—To receive all Complaints from Prisoners wherever confined, to inquire into the same, and to report to the Court of King's Bench the results.
			9th.—To correspond with the Boards of Superintendence and Local Officers on every Gaol, on all matters connected with the Discipline, Economy and Management thereof.
			10th.—To examine into the Expenditure of Prisons, of which a comparative Statement, including Salaries and other Expenses of every Gaol, is annexed to the Annual Report.

N. B.—The Inspectors General have each to travel annually, on an average, about 2,000 miles to perform the duty, and do not receive the £. 20 from any County, until the duty is bonâ fide performed.

James Palmer,
B. B. Woodward, } Inspectors General of Prisons.

INSPECTORS GENERAL OF PRISONS,

(IRELAND.)

RETURN of the SALARIES, EMOLUMENTS and DUTIES of the INSPECTORS GENERAL of PRISONS in IRELAND, and how far their Duties are connected with the Convict Department and Hulks.

(Mr. Evans.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed,
12 March 1833.

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit